SPONSOR INFORMATION

The San Diego County Women's Hall of Fame (WHOF) is a non-profit, non-partisan project created and produced by the Women's History Museum & Education Center, San Diego Commission on the Status of Women, UCSD Women's Center and SDSU's Women's Studies Department. WHOF's mission is to acknowledge and honor women who have made outstanding contributions, both as professionals and volunteers, to improve the quality of life for all people. It also serves as a forum for coalition building with dozens of women's organizations representing San Diego's diverse population.

The Annual Induction Ceremony is designed to make the public aware of the hardworking and influential women who have shaped San Diego County. It is intended to be a night of inspiration that can stir your passions. The women honored are commemorated in a physical Hall of Fame that housed within the Women's History Museum.

Co-Hosts and Partners

In bringing you this yearly event, the WHOF proudly collaborates with over 30 San Diego County organizations representing San Diego's diverse population.

Who Is Honored

Each year women from a variety of backgrounds and perspectives are honored because they share this distinction of having made a deep impression on San Diego. Though they are a diverse and distinct ensemble, they share the following qualities:

We value women who.....

....are trailblazers; women who have courage, are fearless and dare do the right thing. We value women who are professionally motivated by personal and community advancement.

....have strength, perseverance, intelligence, critical thinking and analytical skills that strategize and communicate those qualities in their everyday lives.

....have a passion for politics that benefit the community, respect and support of other's advancement, and a desire to choose their own identities.

....are visionaries and dreamers of a nurturing community and continued coalition building for communities working together.

....are creative and imaginative role models, who represent and welcome diversity in age, ethnicity, and profession as well as other areas.

....are individuals, in their culture, ethnic heritage and history and we truly value the sharing of these with others.
